

Year 6 Newsletter 20th September

After another fantastic week in Y6, the children have written some great stories about Wild Boy, continued with addition and subtraction, learnt how to tell the time in Spanish and much more. Behaviour this week has been great and all the children have been showing excellent role model attitudes.

Important information:

- LONDON: we have set dates for our trip and a letter has been sent out via email to all parents.
- Thursday 26th September is Thankful Thursday – please visit us in year 6 until 9am so we can share all of our fabulous work with you.
- We have had a Y5/6 football tournament this week and have a netball tournament next week! Keep up all the great sports and team work.

Homework:

- Please read 4 times this week.
- Practice spellings on spelling shed.
- 4 rapid recall activities on StudyLadder.

If you have any questions please ask any of the Year 6 team.
